

PRODKTR Cookie Policy

Why do we use cookies/tracking technologies?

They help us to operate our websites and services, enhance and customise your experience across our websites and services, perform analytics and deliver advertising and marketing that's relevant to you.

There are also cookies set by third parties across our websites and services. Third party cookies enable third party features or functionality to be provided on or through our websites and services, such as advertising, interactive content and analytics. They also enable us to use advertising networks to manage our advertising on other websites.

Below is a list of cookies that we use on our websites and services. The types of cookies we use are always changing. Check back regularly to make sure you stay up to date. If you think we've missed a cookie, please let us know.

Third party cookies

- Google Analytics (Analytics)
Google Analytics uses cookies to help us analyse how our users use our websites and services. You can find out more about this service and how Google uses your data at <http://www.google.com/analytics> and www.google.com/policies/privacy/partners/
- Facebook (Analytics)
We use Facebook as a medium to talk to customers and to measure effectiveness of campaigns
- LinkedIn (Analytics)
We use LinkedIn as a medium to talk to customers and to measure effectiveness of campaigns
- Twitter (Analytics)
We use Twitter as a medium to talk to customers and to measure effectiveness of campaigns

How can you control cookies?

You can accept or reject cookies by amending your web browser controls. Because they're important, our websites and services might not work like they're supposed to, and in some cases, might not work at all, if you decide to reject our cookies.

Most advertising networks also offer you the option to opt out of targeted advertising. For more info, visit <http://www.aboutads.info/choices/> or <http://www.youronlinechoices.com>.

You can manage your cookie settings by following your browser's instructions.
